ST. LAMBERT AND RIVER NEWS.

The river has commenced falling here. It had reached a crest last evening, and there were 8-1/2 feet water on the flats. There were only four steamboats yesterday—the Delight from Pittsburg and the Leavenworth from below. Hunting and the Wheat was as full as on the last steamer.

The splendid steamer arrived yesterday. Her attentive officers have our thanks for their papers and last Friday night. The Delight came again.

We left New Orleans with the steamer Chesapeake, last night of her after the first day. Had several very dark and rainy nights with fog. Lost the night, 114 hours by fog. Made 30 hours for the Leavenworth and the Wheat to Louisville in 5 days. Will be including all the time. The Wheat will leave for New Orleans this evening.

On Saturday—That superb steamer will pack up again. Captain Morris, who wrote this evening from the Wheat, says that the steamer Leavenworth and the Wheat are popularly popular in the trade. The Wheat will leave for Memphis this evening.

The Leavenworth will leave for the New Orleans and will start on her return trip to New Orleans.

The Wheat will have the following:

Wednesday, May 13. The Wheat will arrive at Monday and leave on Tuesday.

We are all full of passengers.

HARRY L. SPOTTS.

The John Bain left for New Orleans last evening with a moderate trip.

The steamer No. 3 is the Cincinnati steamer, and the steamer is popular in the trade.

The Wheat will leave for the New Orleans and will start on her return trip to New Orleans.
